

SEXUAL ASSAULT RESPONSE PROTOCOL
IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF CARROLL
STATE OF GEORGIA

ORDER

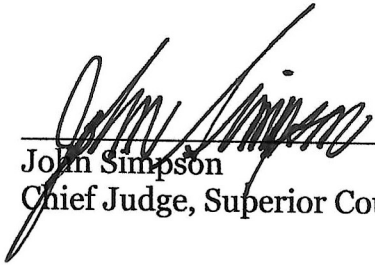

WHEREAS, the Legislature of the State of Georgia enacted O.C.G.A. Section 15-24-2 requiring the establishment of a Sexual Assault Protocol; and

WHEREAS, the undersigned established a Sexual Assault Protocol Committee pursuant to O.C.G.A § 15-24-2; and

WHEREAS, the Committee has met on December 10, 2021 and discussed the Protocol, which was approved by a majority vote and which is attached hereto, as the protocol for cases of sexual assault in the Coweta Judicial Circuit, Sixth District of the State of Georgia.

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, this document is accepted by the Court as the protocol to be used in responding to, investigating and prosecuting cases arising from an alleged sexual assault and shall be spread upon the minutes and filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court of Carroll County.

SO ORDERED, this 15 day of December, 2021.

CARROLL COUNTY, GEORGIA SEXUAL ASSAULT PROTOCOL

The undersigned agencies do hereby enter into the Memorandum of Understanding for the purpose of providing collaborative services in Carroll County, Georgia and surrounding areas for victims of sexual assault.

It is agreed that the following areas are basic services that should be provided to every victim of sexual violence:

1. Referral to the appropriate law enforcement agency for reporting purposes;
2. Referral to the appropriate medical agency for the purpose of a forensic medical exam (FME), or other medical care as deemed necessary; and
3. Information regarding advocacy services, crisis intervention, victims' rights, criminal justice procedure, and medical care.

As such, the undersigned agencies agree to the following:

Law Enforcement

The undersigned law enforcement agencies agree to provide the following services in the course of investigation of sexual assault reports:

- To make victims of sexual violence aware that an advocate is available through the West Georgia Prevention & Advocacy Resource Center, Inc. (PARC) to provide crisis intervention, information, counseling, and emotional and other support;
- To contact PARC's hotline (770-834-7273) in the event a victim or their family, or friend request advocacy services;
- To make victimized students at the University of West Georgia (UWG) aware that 24 hour confidential forensic medical services conducted by SANES and advocacy services are available at Health Services (470-215-9946)
- To contact UWG's Victim Services Crisis Line (470-215-9946) when a victimized student or their family or friends request medical or advocacy services;
- Refer victims of sexual violence to local healthcare facilities for a Forensic Medical Examination (FME) in accordance with O.C.G.A § 17-5-72, and/or evaluation as deemed appropriate by law enforcement personnel;
- Advise victims of sexual violence who do not receive an FME of the importance of follow-up medical care and information through other agencies such as the local health department, UWG Health Services (students only), personal physician, or PARC;

- To provide case status information to PARC Client Advocates, or UWG Patient Advocates calling on the behalf of sexual assault victims;
- To contact other agencies (such as the Office of the District Attorney's Victim Advocate, Tanner Behavioral Health, University of West Georgia's Health Services, or PARC) as needed; and
- To call upon fellow stakeholders for collaboration on projects related to sexual violence.

Medical Care

The undersigned medical care agencies agree to provide the following services in the course of providing care and evaluation to victims of sexual violence;

- In instances of victims of sexual violence who present initially to a medical agency, referral to the appropriate law enforcement agency;
- Information for the victim regarding payment responsibility. The cost of examinations shall be paid pursuant to O.C.G.A § 16-6-1(c), O.C.G.A § 17-5-72. Patients shall not be responsible for the payment of medical forensic examination costs. The patient is responsible for aspects of treatment not related to evidence collection.
- To make victims of sexual violence aware that an advocate is available through the West Georgia Prevention & Advocacy Resource Center, Inc. (PARC) to provide crisis intervention, information, counseling, and emotional and other support;
- To contact PARC's hotline (770-834-7273) in the event a victim or their family, or friend request advocacy services;
- To make victimized students at the University of West Georgia (UWG) aware that 24 hour confidential forensic medical services conducted by SANES and advocacy services are available at Health Services (470-215-9946);
- To contact UWG's Victim Services Crisis Line (470-215-9946) when a victimized student or their family or friends request medical or advocacy services;
- To provide victims of sexual violence with follow-up care information (e.g.: testing procedures/information for sexually transmitted disease, pregnancy testing information);
- To call upon fellow stakeholders for collaboration on projects related to sexual violence; and
- To contact other agencies (such as the Office of the District Attorney's Victim Advocate, Willowbrooke at Tanner, University of West Georgia Health Services, or PARC) as needed.

Crisis Intervention

The undersigned Crisis Intervention agencies agree to provide the following services in the course of providing advocacy and crisis care to victims of sexual violence:

- In instances of a victim of sexual violence reporting initially to a crisis intervention agency, referral to the appropriate law enforcement agent and/or medical facility, when appropriate;
- In instances of mandated reporting, direct and timely reports filed with the appropriate agency (e.g.: child sexual assault to law enforcement or Department of Family and Children services, suicidal or homicidal threats to local law enforcement);
- To make victims aware of services provided through PARC, including in-person crisis intervention, medical and/or criminal justice accompaniment, counseling, information related to and assistance with victims' compensation, clothing/comfort kits for victims, and personal advocacy;
- To contact PARC's hotline (770-834-7273) in the event a victim or their family, or friend request advocacy services;
- To make victimized students at the University of West Georgia (UWG) aware that 24 hour confidential forensic medical services conducted by SANES and advocacy services are available at Health Services (470-215-9946); As well as in-person crisis intervention, medical and/or criminal justice accompaniment, counseling, criminal justice assistance, information related to victims' compensation, clothing/comfort kits for victims, and personal advocacy;
- To contact UWG's Victim Services Crisis Line (470-215-9946) when a victimized student or their family or friends request medical or advocacy services;
- To make appropriate referrals for professional counseling and/or mental health services;
- To refer victims for immediate mental health evaluation when deemed appropriate by the agent;
- Information and referrals to community resources; and
- To call upon fellow stakeholders for collaboration on projects related to sexual violence.
